Homemade Food Prepared Daily

"Casa Fuentes" was established in Mexico City in 1920 by Manuel Fuentes Martinez. Due to his vast knowledge of International Gastronomy, he applied exquisite and varied techniques to Mexican food.

Don Manuelito, as all of his friends called him, had worked as head chef in hotels and restaurants in New York City, Dallas and Galveston for more than twenty years.

Manuel Fuentes Alvarez continues his tradition in Mexico City and the city of Puebla. Now, the tradition is being carried on by his son, Manuel Fuentes Rodriguez, who has taken the traditional Mexican recipes and adapted them to American taste. Here, in Branson, people such as yourself who know the exquisite taste of Mexican food, will give "Casa Fuentes" your approval for its cleanliness, great taste and exquisite food quality.
